36th ANNUAL SILVER SKATES

THE 36th annual Silver Skates tonight launches the Christmas holiday season. Welcome!

We have a wonderful evening of thrilling championship speed races blended with an unusually attractive array of internationally acclaimed specialty acts.

The Race of Champions, a gruelling two-mile test, again highlights the evening's races. The impressive field includes Dick Ring, John Walsh, Ray Blum, Bob Fischer, Bob Zirkel, Steve Stenson, Bob Nelson and Andy Korenak. Tonight's champions will take their places among the world's great ice skating stars who have gained fame in the Silver Skates.

For entertainment we proudly offer Joe Jackson, Jr. His antics on ice have delighted audiences in the world's major cities. Andra McLaughlin, lovely queen of the Hawaiian dance, will salute our 50th state. The Dance Group of the Skating Club of New York appears for the 16th consecutive time while 10-year-old Taffy Pergament makes her Silver Skates debut.

Nancy and Ronnie Ludington, the reigning U. S. Pairs champions, will show their prize-winning form and talent. This charming couple hails from Boston.

Australia sends us the brilliant Kermond Brothers and from the other side of the world, we proudly present Austria's Miss Helga Haid. Jack Flanagan, the talented smiling Irishman, will tickle your funnybone. Bob Russell will MC our entire show while Tony Cabot's musical background provides the inspiration.

THE NEWS Welfare Association is privileged to donate the net proceeds from the Silver Skates, the Harvest Moon Ball and the Golden Gloves to this area's leading charities. Among these are the Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of New York and the Diocese of Brooklyn, the Federation of Protestant Welfare Agencies, Inc. and the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies of New York. These contributions, since 1937, total $857,248.41.

Enjoy the show and have a joyous Christmas!
